

Born and raised in the tough streets of Brooklyn, N.Y., Rev. Renn Law had to adapt and overcome from an early age. He became a Black Belt in Martial Arts to survive and eventually joined the U.S. Air Force after 9/11. During his tour in Okinawa, Japan he began his journey to find God by researching over 25 major religions. At that point he rediscovered Christ and fully surrendered his life to Jesus on the base Chapel of this tiny, remote island in Asia.

Being of Caribbean descent, particularly Grenada, he enjoys all the variety and flavors life has to offer. Now with his newly revived faith, he left the military to serve God back in the U.S. with The Brooklyn Tabernacle. Rev. Law is a graduate with honors of Stony Brook University, N.Y. and Seminarian at Asbury Theological, FL. From there he met his wife in Church of over 12 years now and became an Ordained Minister through the AECC. Presently seeking to spread the Gospel and impact the next generation of world changers for Jesus, Rev. Renn launched Most High King Ministries in Orlando, FL.

He currently is the Region 5 Coordinator and an active Board Member of the AECC.
